Song: Love, Just Love

Prayer of the Day

Messiah, Everlasting Savior, Prince of Peace; we come to you today seeking peace, nations have risen up against nations and Your divine work is fractured all around us. We were given the mission of love, but we fall short every day. Help us to find Your love in our lives, and to share that love with others. You are boundless, gracious, all-caring; You are everything and everyone. Help us to heal, and help us to help heal the world around us so we may all share in Your unending glory. In Jesus' Holy Name we pray, Amen.

Please visit our website for upcoming events, classes & groups.

Sermon Series: Do I Stay Christian?

To open the 2024 year, we will explore Brian McLaren's latest book, "Do I Stay Christian?" In a world that is increasingly "post Christian" what does it mean for the future of Christianity? We will explore reasons people struggle with religious organizations as well as positive practices that will help The Church move forward.
