Ways to Connect

Confession:

God of love, though we long for unity, we live in division. We confess the ways that we create more wounds instead of bringing about healing. We let cynicism, fear, or our desire to be right keep us from seeking to understand our neighbor. Forgive us, God, for failing to show compassion.

Words of Forgiveness:

People of God, know that by the grace of God, you are forgiven and loved no matter what. God's Spirit is with us to comfort, challenge, and reshape us as a community united in love. Amen.

Sending Words:

As you go about your day,
strive for justice and celebrate diversity,
but remember who you are.
We are children of God before anything else.
May God's love that gives us a common identity,
unite us as we live out that love in the world.

Sermon Series:
DIVIDED IN LOVE

Knowing regardless of what happens in this election, we are divided as a nation. It is healthy and healing for us to remember we are united as Children of God. Even as a community when we disagree on politics, we strive to love.
