Prayer of the Day

Holy Jesus, we know one day in Your courts will be better than all our days on earth, but we still work to create paradise in Your creation. You call us to love, just love. Help us to rise to Your glorious image, and truly live as You have taught us. You came to live a mortal life, to suffer, and this experience became the greatest sacrifice for love. We are forever grateful, forever singing praise for what You have done for us. Please be with us on our journey, and help us to hear Your words in the world. May Thy word be a lamp unto our feet, and a light unto our path on this human journey, Amen.

Sermon Series: Do I Stay Christian?

To open the 2024 year, we will explore Brian McLaren's latest book, "Do I Stay Christian?" In a world that is increasingly "post Christian" what does it mean for the future of Christianity? We will explore reasons people struggle with religious organizations as well as positive practices that will help The Church move forward.
