Prelude: What Wondrous Love Is This? Arr. by Mark Hayes
Mark Meuser, organ and Michael Lester, piano

Ways To Connect

Confession

Leader: Almighty God, you have formed us and breathed life within us. We realize we fall short of being the people you created us to be. You made us with arms to embrace and love one another, eyes to see the wonders of your creation, and ears to hear your Good News.

All: Forgive us when we fail to love, fail to see, and refuse to listen.

(pause for reflection)

Leader: God of all creation, you gave us senses to experience your wonder. The smell of flowers in the Spring, the taste of bread and wine, are all things that can remind us of your love for humanity and all creation.

All: Forgive us when we are so busy that we fail to notice you, when we abuse your creation for our personal gain, and when we don't appreciate the gifts you have given us.

(pause for reflection)

Leader: In God's goodness we are already forgiven. May this Good News awaken our senses. May we move forward with renewed freedom, eager to live lives pleasing to God.

All: Amen, thanks be to God!

Opening Hymns: Bless the Lord (Taize)
When I Survey The Wondrous Cross (ELW 803)

Prayer

Text: Matthew 6:9

Sermon: The Lord's Prayer
Our Father who art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name
Pastor Tony Katko

Hymn/Prayer: Spirit of the living God

Lord's Prayer (Anglican Church of New Zealand)/ Communion

Sending Words:

You are what God made you to be:
created in Christ Jesus for good works,
chosen as holy and beloved,
freed to serve your neighbor.
God bless you that you may be a blessing,
in the name of the holy and life-giving Trinity.
Amen.

Postlude: God, Who Stretched the Spangled Heavens
arr. by Wilbur Held
Mark Meuser, organ

Sermon Series: The Lord's Prayer

As Christians we believe that prayer is an important spiritual practice, but the "thoughts and prayers" response we hear so much feels hollow. We want to move straight to action, but often that leaves us casting aside prayer entirely. What if instead, we pray in a way that moves us to also put our prayers into action? When Jesus gave us the Lord's Prayer, it was meant to be more than something we recite in church. It's a prayer that's meant to be lived. For Lent we will look line by line at the Lord's Prayer; each week unpacking what that line means, and giving an invitation to a practical way to live out that prayer in our lives.

Peace For Justice

The Peace For Justice ministry at Peace was recently formed with the purpose to educate our faith community on the complex social justice issues in today's world, to be active participants with local organizations that are addressing these issues and to build a culture at Peace in which we can openly and respectfully discuss these difficult and complex topics. We will be offering monthly events and forums addressing racial and immigration topics. We invite anyone with a desire to learn and share to join the discussion.
